

INTERNATIONAL CONSERVATION

Participant Guide B

While you are watching and listening to the International Conservation LIVE event, record questions you think of or questions that are asked in the left column. Use the right column to write the answers to the questions. When the event is complete, use the bottom section to review, retell, or reflect on what you've learned.

In this column, list questions you hear or that you have.

In this column, write your answers to the questions. Consider using bullets or dashes to help you organize your ideas.
