

Living with Nature – During Event Activity

Virgin Island Boas are found in the Virgin Islands and

The biggest threat to VI Boas are

The North Carolina Zoo is currently  VI Boas to reintroduce into the wild

Genetic  is important for the health of a species

Snakelet, hatchling or  are all names for a baby snake

The most endangered canid (dog like animal) in the world is the American

The  range of this canid was Eastern and South Eastern USA

The only wild population of this wolf can be found in

The animal at the top of a food chain is called a(n)  predator

A Species  Plan help us maintain a healthy population of the 255 wolves in human care

The family group of this wolf is made up of a mom, dad, and their pups of the last  years

Mountain is a hiking trail located at the Zoo

You can use technology and learn about the plants and animals around you with

During the  era, moonshiners would build stills in remote places and the eerie light emitting from these stills at night let them to make up spooky stories in hopes of keeping people away

An animal that helps with the reproduction of plants is called a(n)  species

Due to the extinction of a bee,  is now only pollinated by humans which is why it's expensive

When creating a garden, it is best to plant  plants for your local animals

Unscramble all letters in the squares to answer the sentence below.

Today you learned all about North Carolina Zoo's  projects!